

Record Rack® Sportsman 20%

Product Purpose: This supplement is designed to be fed to deer and game when limited forbs and browse are available.

Deer require different nutrients at various times of the year and Mother Nature can't always keep up. If you want to maintain a healthier herd on your property and help support the growth of bucks to their full genetic potential, then throwing corn out isn't enough. Record Rack® Sportsman Premium Deer Feed is serious nutrition designed to supplement native food supplies. It contains a unique and consistent blend of select ingredients.

Product Features:

- High protein content to support overall herd health
- All the vitamins and minerals necessary to help support a healthy bodyweight and antler growth
- Our exclusive wild berry recipe to attract them in and help ensure consumption.

Feeding Directions:

Feed free-choice to deer and game in their natural environment as a supplement to their natural diet when limited browse and forbs are available.

Provide plenty of fresh, clean water at all times.
